PEACEFUL SETTLEMENT

In Mexican Matters is Now Believed by Washington Officials--Huerta Government Knows View Point of United States

Washington, Aug. 15.—The Huerta government through conferences between John Lind, President Wilson's personal representative, and Foreign Minister Guibon, now knows the view point of the United States and its desire for only a peaceful and friendly solution of Mexico's troubles.

The formal communication Mr. Lind bears, however, will not be handed to Mexico before Monday, at least, when it will be transmitted to diplomatic representatives of foreign powers in Washington.

What the result of publishing these views will be officials here do not venture to predict. They have no assurance that the Huerta government will accept them, but they believe the spirit thus far shown by the Huerta officials justifies a hopeful feeling for the success of Mr. Lind's mission.

Observers of the situation generally look for a pronouncement of some kind from Huerta immediately following the presentation of President Wilson's message through Mr. Lind. It is expected in diplomatic circles that President Huerta will formally announce a call for an early election, even setting the date.

Constitutionalists hitherto have claimed they would not engage in any election in which the Huerta government exercised control over the election machinery. The possibility of an agreement, however, for a non-partisan commission of Mexicans to conduct the election is being discussed and should the situation actually progress to that point, it may be that informal efforts will be made by Mr. Lind to secure participation by the constitutionalist leaders in such a plan.

Information, however, of only the vaguest character has been forthcoming from officials as to the eventualities that would follow a possible rejection of President Wilson's idea by the Huerta government. There is no intention at present of lifting the embargo on arms; in fact, the President is said to have taken a strong position against it, at least until all peaceful means of settlement have been exhausted.

There is a confident and conspicuous feeling of optimism, however, among administration officials that a peaceful settlement is in sight, though they admit the delicacy of the situation forbids any detailed discussion at this time of the circumstances on which their hopes are based.

THROUGH TRAINS DROPPED FROM B. & M. TABLES

Sweeping changes in the passenger service of the Fitchburg division of the Boston & Maine railroad have been instituted to become effective next Monday.

Two through trains, one from Boston to Albany, and the other from Boston to Albany, will be discontinued, also one train from Boston to Fitchburg, one to North Adams and two to South Acton, and two that now run from South Acton to Boston.

Officials of the railroad declare that the service will not be impaired as a consequence, but it is generally understood that the curtailment is in the interest of economy, and the first step in the reorganization of the road to be taken by its new president Morris McDonald.

A further change in connection with the operation of the Fitchburg division will come in the fall, when according to John D. Tyler, the division superintendent, his headquarters will be moved from Boston to Greenfield.

Just how many trainmen will be thrown out of employment with the inauguration of the changed schedule is not known. It is generally believed, however, that at least 40 will be affected.

AT GRANGE HALL

Invitation Extended to Hear Mr. Hooper Harris Speak on Bahai Movement.

To the friends of Elliot and vicinity:—In the light of recent events and inasmuch as this community has been brought into undesirable prominence through articles appearing in the newspapers, and inasmuch as this prominence was directly, or indirectly chargeable to an attack upon the followers of Baha Ullah, it has come to me that in justice to this community, of which it has been my privilege to be a part for ten years, and also to the Bahai movement, in which I have been a firm believer for nearly 20 years, a clear exposition of this movement should be accorded those who would acquaint themselves with the principles and spirit of this movement which has come here, that an intelligent judgment may decide as to whether it is an undesirable element in the community or not.

It is therefore my great pleasure to invite all who care to come to listen to Mr. Hooper Harris of New York City on Sunday, August 17th, 1913, at 10:45 a. m., in Grange Hall, Elliot, Me., when he will speak upon the Baha Ullah and Abdul Baha as related to our own Christian faith.

A cordial welcome to all.

ASK PRAYERS FOR RAIN IN KANSAS

Gov. Hodges Declines to Proclaim Day of Supplication for Relief of Heat Parched Country

Kansas City, Mo., Aug. 15.—Prayers for rain were asked for in Kansas and Missouri today by citizens and clergymen who believe that sporadic prayers are not sufficient to end the drought that has beset the Southwest for more than three weeks. In Kansas hundreds of persons wrote to Governor Hodges, asking him to issue a proclamation calling for a day of public prayer. The Governor declined. "I believe in the efficacy of prayer," said the governor but not in the case of floods or droughts.

Bishop J. J. Hennessy of the Roman Catholic diocese of Wichita, Kan., issued an order that on next Sunday an hour should be given in each church in the diocese for special devotions and fervent prayers to Our Blessed Lord to terminate the present unusually protracted dry spell.

At Springfield, Mo., the Rev. J. F.

McDonald, pastor of the St. Paul Methodist Episcopal church, announced public services would be held tomorrow to offer prayers for rain.

The letters to Governor Hodges were from all parts of the state. Some urged the governor to ask that every resident attend church Sunday morning and that everyone make a prayer of his own. Others urged that the proclamation simply asked each citizen to offer a prayer at his home or at church.

All of the letters to the governor declared the writers and their families and friends and the preachers generally had prayed and are praying for rain, but the prayers have not been answered. The writers declared their belief that if the entire citizenship of the state would join in a general prayer, God would not fail to answer it at once and send the much needed rain.

FLEET TO SAIL FOR PACIFIC

Newport, R. I., August 15.—The men of the United States navy have an interesting program of travel before them within the next six months, as developed in a discussion of plans for the Atlantic battleship fleet by Secretary of the navy Daniels, during a visit of the inspection of the naval training station here today.

The entire fleet is to be sent through the Panama Canal after the cut has been officially opened, Secretary Daniels said, and the battleships may make a short passage on the Pacific coast immediately following. But the secretary took occasion to deny that there is or ever has been any intention of the navy department to divide the present Atlantic fleet between the Atlantic and Pacific oceans following the completion of the canal.

The battleships within the next two months are to start on a European tour. He relieved the minds of many men in the navy when he said that it would not extend over two months and that the vessels of the fleet would certainly be at their home stations to give the men Christmas liberty at home.

As a result of his inspection of the training station, Secretary Daniels announced extensions in the instruction to be given apprentices at the Norfolk, San Francisco, and Great Lakes training stations.

In fulfillment for one of his early ideas of improvement in the service a school of advanced instruction in wireless telegraphy, steam engineering and signalling was installed here. Viewing the result of six weeks work today, Secretary Daniels was so much impressed with the value of the course that he said it would be extended to each of the other naval training stations in the country.

He made a personal test of the ability of the class of wireless telegraphy and found 16 boys who could take a message without error. Three of these boys had been under instruction only two weeks, and the secretary said that he would order that they be put in active service aboard the flagship Wyoming immediately as a reward for their work.

APPOINTMENT MADE.

Frank L. Wasser Gets the Position of Master Mechanic.

MANICURIST THOUGHT TO HAVE MET FOUL PLAY

Stomach Removed and Sent to Harvard for Analysis.

Norwood, Mass., Aug. 15.—Mrs. Marie B. Lorraine, an attractive manicurist, was found dead in her apartment on Washington street under circumstances so mysterious that county and town officials immediately took up an investigation, keeping secret the fact of the woman's death for 11 hours. Indications were that Mrs. Lorraine had died of poisoning, but the officials were reticent as to whether there were any further indications to show whether death may have been caused by some other person. The police were trying tonight to find the owner of a man's handkerchief, which was lying near the woman's body.

The stomach and viscera were removed from the body by Dr. John W. Platt of Dedham, assistant medical examiner of Harvard for chemical analysis. Until Professor Whitney's report is received nothing will be known definitely as to the agency which caused the woman's death. Dr. Platt said tonight. He added that there was nothing about the body in the form of pills or any container to show the probable cause of death. Mrs. Lorraine, according to Dr. Platt, died some time last night.

The woman had not been seen by friends since last Wednesday and becoming alarmed over the fact some of them went to the police early this morning and asked for an investigation.

The officers forced an entrance into Mrs. Lorraine's apartment and found her body lying on a couch with the feet resting on the floor. Mrs. Lorraine had been fully dressed. The body was covered also by a table cloth. A man's handkerchief was found near the woman's head. Officials said there was little to assist them in their attempts at identifying its owner.

The police said tonight that they had heard of one or two attempts at suicide reported to have been made by Mrs. Lorraine within a few months.

Mrs. Lorraine, who was about 33 years old, came here from New Bedford four years ago. She had not lived with her husband for several years. He is understood to be in New York at present.

These 75c and 98c Crepe Gowns and Skirts are the best we have ever had. If it is a conservative style, with lace or hamburg trimmed, it is the best quality as the kind we have ever sold at these prices.

Crepe Drawers at 50c | Short Crepe Skirts at 50c

Beautiful Undergarments, such as Princess Slips, Combinations, Corset Covers and Skirts.

One of the most attractive places in the store is where all the pretty, dainty things for babies are shown. The little mites of humanity are usually incentives to great extravagance. Personal pride, vanity and love combine to make ordinarily frugal mothers almost indifferent to cost when buying for the new baby. However, we do not take advantage of that phase of temperamental weakness by exacting large profits for infants' goods.

WOMEN'S KNIT UNDERWEAR—Women appreciate garments that are perfect fitting. We have been a good many years perfecting the styles and shapes of our underwear for women and we have accomplished a great deal, both with foreign and American manufactures. Women who have not previously bought their underwear here will be pleased to discover how much more comfortable they can be than they have been in the past.

BY BIG CONFLAGRATIONEcho Cottage Destroyed--Parsonage
Badly Damaged and Other Houses on Fire--Auto Chemical from Here
Sent Out.

The compact part of the town of Hampton, was threatened by fire on Friday afternoon, when the Echo cottage was destroyed, the Baptist parsonage gutted, the hotel Whittier and the Odd Fellows block were in danger.

The Echo cottage which has a capacity of thirty guests, had every room taken, and practically all of the guests were either at Hampton Beach or about the town, when shortly after three o'clock fire was discovered in one of the attic rooms and it spread with lightning like rapidity through the upper part of the house. Fanned by the high wind which prevailed the building was soon a mass of flames and the sparks began to fall in a threatening manner on the adjoining buildings.

As soon as it was seen that the fire was beyond the local department a telephone message was sent to this city for the auto chemical and Chief Woods sent it over, and it made the trip in just seventeen minutes.

By this time the fire had spread to the Baptist parsonage and an ice house belonging to the hotel Whittier while the roof of a barn owned by Howard G. Lane and the house of J. W. Brown adjoining the Odd Fellows block was on fire. The auto chemical arrived just in time to prevent a further spread of the flames. The Echo cottage where the fire started was beyond saving and while the guests who were about the cottage and others did what they could to save their personal belongings, they did not make much headway and practically every guest lost some clothing or jewelry.

The attention was given to the Baptist parsonage and this was saved but it was badly gutted by fire and water. The ice house of the hotel Whittier was destroyed and a small shed also went up in flames.

The fire loss is estimated at $5,000 on the Echo cottage which is owned by Charles O. Stevens and about $3,000 on furnishings and effects of the guests. The Baptist parsonage was damaged about $2,000 and there was about $1,000 damage to the other buildings.

The guests were a surprised lot as they drifted back from the different places to find the house a mass of ruins. One couple came back from Salisbury and found their belongings beside the road where they had been thrown.

A CREDIT TO THE AUTHOR AND ILLUSTRATOR

Vignettes of Portsmouth, New Hampshire, is the title of a very fine book which was placed on the market Friday. The book is a creation of Miss Helen Pearson and Mr. Harold Hotchkiss Bennett and both are entitled to a great deal of credit. The illustrations are by Miss Pearson who is a very clever illustrator and the descriptive text by Mr. Bennett.

The illustrations are most beautifully done, in fact, the best ever seen of some of the historic old places. They are done in ink and handily printed on heavy plate paper. Miss Pearson who has a wide reputation for this kind of work has in these drawings shown a very fine pen and a knowledge of her subject which is refreshing. The illustrations include Whiteslack Light, the Public Library, the Portsmouth Althaus, the Longdon door, which is also the frontpiece, Meeting House pump, Point of Graves, The Garden Liden, the William Pitt Tavern, the Aldrich house, St. John's Chapel, the Lord house, Strawberry Bank, the Jackson house, the Wentworth mansion, the Sir William Pepperell mansion, Port Constitution gate, Fort Clinton and the Peace Conference building.

The descriptive text is very interesting and well written and Mr. Bennett shows a fine knowledge of the history of the old city, which he has told in a very charming manner. We predict for the book a very large sale.

OLD CONSTELLATION

The famous frigate Constellation, which dates back to the birth of the American navy, has become a bone of contention between Maryland and Rhode Island. The people of Baltimore want Congress to appropriate $50,000 for the restoration of the frigate and to send it to Baltimore for public exhibition during a celebration to be held there in 1915 commemorative of the episode of Fort Mifflin which gave birth to the "Star Spangled Banner." The frigate is now at the naval training station at Newport. The people of that station and its sister city, Providence, oppose the scheme, which is being urged by an executive committee, headed by Mayor Preston of Baltimore. The Providence Board of Trade has started a vigorous campaign. Its president has written to Senators Lippitt and Colt, and Representatives O'Shaunessy and Kennedy of Rhode Island, urging them to block the plan.

FINGERPRINTS IDENTIFIED

Indian's "I. O. U." Memorandum, Thus Signed, Found Identical in 19 Respects With His Hand.

Washington, Aug. 15.—Two or three finger prints on an "I. O. U." are as valid as a formal signature, in the opinion of the finger print expert of the United States Marine Corps.

In a statement forwarded to the Secretary of the Interior today, the expert, established the genuineness of 20 finger prints which were given to him for identification, and the finding is expected to cause a certain Pawnee Indian, considerable embarrassment.

The Indian signed a memorandum acknowledging his indebtedness of several hundred dollars to an attorney, and, in addition to affixing his signature, made several finger prints on the paper. The attorney sent in his claim to the Department of the Interior for his fee, but in the meantime the Indian denied having signed the paper.

In order to determine the question, the Department submitted the memorandum for expert examination, which disclosed that the prints are identical in 19 different characteristics. This is sufficient, the expert holds, to establish their identity. The Department will not pay the fee.

WHAT IS A BOY WORTH?

Leadership and service plus boyhood is the formula for manhood. Workers with boys are feeling a demand for material and for help along lines of activities which interest boys.

The State Young Men's Christian Association is this year, for the first time offering up program which should challenge the attention of every interested person. This institute is to be held at Camp Belknap, Lake Umbagog, Sept. 8 and is open to all workers with boys.

Five hours each forenoon will be devoted to lectures and the afternoons will be given over to demonstrations of games and scout work; the evenings to lectures by our state leader, State Supt. H. C. Morrison will give the opening lecture Sept. 1 on "Our New Hampshire Fields." Other lectures during the week will be President E. T. Fairchild of New Hampshire College; C. C. Robinson and A. E. Roberts of New Island. Courses on boy life, biblic study organizations for boys, scout work, and all phases of boys organizations will be presented during this week. These courses will be given by Professor Marshall of Dartmouth College D. C. and a number of State workers.

It is safe to say that there never has been such an opportunity before presented in our state to leaders of boys' clubs, Sunday school classes, and secretaries of associations as this institute offers. It is hoped that a large number will take advantage of the institute and accommodations can be had by writing to the state Y. M. C. A. office, Concord, N. H.

Drastic Measures Against Hobble Skirt Styles.

Horrors, ladies! How cruel! This latest move to put the hobble skirt out of business. Listen to this:

The Pennsylvania railroad has resorted to drastic measures in its warfare upon French heels and hobble skirts. Hereafter, if a woman slips on its property, it will take not of her style of skirt and heel, of her age and circumstances of life, and print them. This extreme policy has been adopted because of no attention was paid to its first fulmination against these articles of dress, which was made several months ago. Its women patrons went on wearing the hobbled skirts and the French heels as if the Pennsylvania had said never a word against them. Not any immodesty in the heel or skirt prompted the railroad's attack upon it. They were condemned as dangerous and as responsible for a large proportion of the injuries suffered by women while getting on and off trains and going up and down stairwayed stations. Even in the new station in New York where all descents are gradual and whose stairways were specially designed to minimize possibility of such accidents, women have, according to the railroad, fallen victims to the high heel and light skirt.

What will our young ladies of Portsmouth say to the above when the rule is enforced on the local railway? What say you—the young ones, say, under sixty?

Get After the Motorcyclists Too.

The past week has witnessed two serious automobile accidents within a short distance of this city. This has aroused public sentiment considerably and there is some talk of more rigorous enforcement of the speed ordinances. It is time. It is perfectly evident that present methods are insufficient to secure anything like safety of travel on the highways. The long roll of dead and injured in automobile accidents in this state during the present season only, is impressive enough to warrant almost any degree of severity in seeking the suppression of the speed mania.

But bad as is the fool at the wheel of the speeding auto, with his reckless disregard for the lives of others, he is by no means alone in his folly. Quite as bad, if not a worse pest is the maniacal motorcyclist who squirts along the roads at 40 to 60 miles an hour with an indifference to consequences that is appalling. The recent accident which cost a local man his life was exclusively due to a speed maniac of this type, who characteristically made his get away before his identity was established.—Manchester Leader.

Inadequate Fire Protection.

The town of Hampton suffered a disastrous fire on Friday and the lack of protection against fire was again demonstrated. The timely arrival of the auto chemical from this city and the fact that there was only a light wind at the time contributed largely to the saving of that portion of the town in the vicinity of hotel Whittier and the Boston & Maine railroad station. This the residents of Hampton were free to admit. Hampton is not the only town in this section that has inadequate protection against fire, and it would seem as though the townspeople have in times past had ample warning and should provide against the fire fiend before it is too late.

The Mexican Situation Not a Party Matter.

Senator Lodge should be commended for the patriotic stand he took before the senate on Friday when he said the Mexican situation was not a political matter. He said that President Wilson was the President of the American people—his President as well as his democratic friends' President—and he warned the democrats that handling the Mexican situation was not a party matter. It is about time that the American people demanded less politics in all of its business affairs.

Business Is Affected in Consequence.

What a pity that poor old political bed ridden Massachusetts cannot free herself from the politicians. The citizens are in a turmoil the year around and business is much affected in consequence.

Badly in Need of a Leader.

The republicans of Massachusetts are disgusting the party outside of the Bay State. They ought to present an example to the party at large. The party is badly in need of a leader.

MASQUERADE BALL AT THE WENTWORTH

New Castle-by-the-Sea, Aug. 16.—

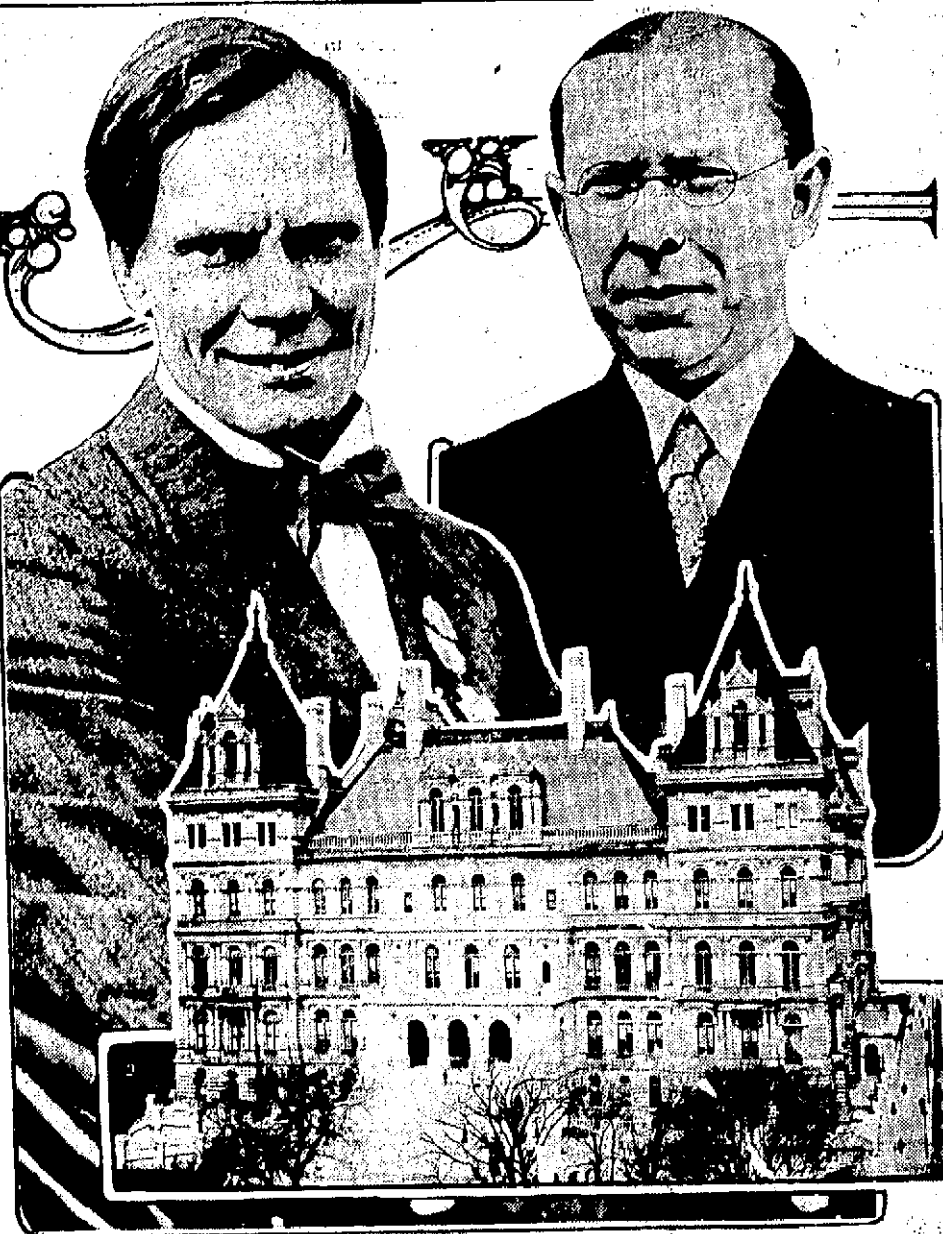

The first annual masquerade was held at the Wentworth hotel Friday evening, and that it was a huge success was amply demonstrated by the gaiety and enthusiastic spirit of all present and the energy shown by the dancers. The masqueraders formed in the card room at the rear of the hall, and the ball was opened by the sudden entrance of Mr. Behr disguised as a colored chef, with a ladle as a baton, and after many preliminary contortions and the hearty applause of the audience, he started the orchestra and the grand march to the tune of "Old Black Joe" opened the festivities of the grandest affair of this nature ever held at the Wentworth. The march was led by three Yama Yamas, namely, Miss Louise Berliner of Washington, Miss Comer of Brookline and Mr. W. W. Yewandine of New York, each in regular costume of black, yellow and white, trimmed with gaudy colors, with large pink hats to match costume. Then came all the others in single file, and they marched twice around the hall forming a snake figure, and a more brilliant sight than this wonderful moving throng of gorgeous costumes and funny faces would be hard to imagine as they formed and took part in the Portland fancy, followed by the tango, tait, two step and waltz.

The most notable dance of the evening was the Spanish waltz in which several took part. Before the procession, Mr. E. E. Babble, Jr., of Melrose dressed as a straw man, or scare crow, in a suit of straw protruding from the pockets and holes made in the breeches, and a large weather-beaten straw hat, was that to a crowd of glees, carried into the hall and stood up in a corner, where he remained motionless for a time, then every little while whirled his limbs which hung limp from the cross pieces, which caused great amusement.

The hall was beautifully decorated with American flags and bunting, as well as a profusion of oak leaves, flowers and Christmas trees, and the color scheme oriental. There was an intermission of 20 minutes at 11 o'clock when the masqueraders formed and marched to the cafe where a beautiful luncheon, including sandwiches, salads, ice cream, cakes, coffee and soft drinks, was furnished by Mrs. C. L. Torrey of Chicago, after which dancing was continued until 12 o'clock. During the evening all of the matrons of the Wentworth congregated in a body and marched toward Mr. Behr, conductor, and unanimously declared him to be the belle of the occasion, and at the close a hearty vote of thanks was tendered him for his untiring efforts to make the affair such a crowning success.

Among some of those taking active part in the masquerade were the following: Mrs. John E. Borden, as Polly, in black and yellow erpe costume with scalloped blouse, hung with myriads of little bells; Mr. John E. Borden made a splendid kitchen maid, with checkered kitchen apron, sunbonnet, carrying a duster; Whitney Borden, as a farmer, overalls, red bandanna around neck, large straw hat; W. J. Taylor, Jr., most popular summer girl, dressed in simple tennis dress, with wide peacock scarf around waist, wearing large grass Panama hat, and carrying blue parasol, and was one of the hits of the evening; Miss Sanders, as Indian queen; Miss Godfrey, hyperbationist of the Chere of "The Quaker Girl," dressed in grey satin quaker costume and bonnet; Miss Trum Williams, as "Little Bo Peep," in painter costume, large white flowered picture hat, little white bomb and crock; Miss Rose Murphy, Spanish lady, exquisite costume of black and gold erpe, hung with black and white spangled lace, head dress of black Spanish roses arranged with American beauty roses, falling in graceful folds to the bottom of her dress (this was without exception the most gorgeous gown worn at the ball); Little Miss Grace Rowley made a beautiful little pink flower, dressed in pink fluted erpe overhung with green petal blouse of same material, with the same scheme carried out in the hand dress; Miss Walker, Mr. Almy, Misses Blameth and Katherine Brooks, as Egyptian in gorgeous costumes of different hues; Miss Florence Ward, Miss Alice Berliner; William Wilson, as beautiful Japanese maidens in all the oriental colors and decorations; Mr. Taylor as beautiful lady, white with blue; Mr. David Yule and Miss Lucy Priest made a boy striking appearance as hunters, in black riding boots, short black skirts, white blouse, hunter's belt and rough riders' hats; Dr. Weber as farmer; Miss Evelyn Torrey as shepherdess, in all blue patterned overhung with flowered yule pointers, large white flowered picture hat; Little Mary Torrey (8x) dressed in long black flowered silk Japanese costume, crown of beautifully arranged black hair with large red roses, made a striking little Japanese lady, and Miss Dorothy Torrey made a good Indian boy, dressed in brown leather with quills. Another good Spanish actor was Mr. Norval in Spanish costume. Miss Waelder made a very charming French maid, dress in black, with white lace cap, cuffs and apron, carrying a tiny cluster. Miss Lillian Urquhart as an Indian maiden; Mr. Sam Macerato, the pianist, dressed as a real old lady carrying her knitting. Messrs. H. G. Hotchkiss and Mr. Clark Bedford made striking appear-

After the impeachment of Governor William Sulzer of New York for "wild and corrupt conduct in office and for high crimes and misdemeanors" the accused executive at once fought to regain his office pending the outcome of the impeachment trial. Lieutenant Governor Martin H. Glynn automatically claimed assumption to the governorship under the provisions of the state constitution. The state capital at Albany, N. Y., was the scene of the hottest political fight of its kind ever waged in the old Empire State. Sulzer was the first governor of the state to be impeached and the eighth in the nation. ## MEETING HELD ON WATER PROPOSITION

What Those Present Said in Regard to the Project.—Some Favor, Some Oppose.

The matter of a proposed new supply of water for Portsmouth is of so much local interest that the Herald is pleased to print additional facts brought out at the meeting in Dover.

The call for the meeting was well responded to. Among those present were Mayor Preston of Rochester, Mayor Badger of Portsmouth and Mayor Foss, Ex-Mayor George J. Foster, Ex-Mayor M. J. White of Dover, ex-Mayor John Pender of Portsmouth, Councilmen C. A. Dunne, George H. Clark, H. J. Cronin, Harold E. Bennett, E. Oscar Pinkham of Portsmouth, James W. Barrett, chairman of the Board of Public Works of Portsmouth, Representative Albert Demeritt of Durham, Alderman A. P. Place of Dover, Councilman Robert H. Fish, Representative Thomas Quinn, City Solicitor Albert P. Sherry, Henry Law, Col. Walter Scott, Frank F. Fernald, Water Commissioners Herbert W. Owen, Andrew Killoren, H. Foster Bider, Supt. Henry E. Perry and Street and Port Commissioner A. H. Whinn, of Dover.

Mayor Badger said that he had hoped that Mayor Foss would preside at the meeting, but as he had turned the honor over to him he would proceed. Continuing he said: "You all know that the legislature last winter passed a resolution granting the New Hampshire Water Supply Company a right to supply water from Merrymeeting Pond to the city of Portsmouth. The people connected with the water supply company have been in our city and discussed their proposition and we did not seem to get along very fast with the proposal they had offered us. The proposition was conditional and they told us that they could not furnish us with water unless Dover, Somersworth and other towns came in. Our councils wanted to hear from the other places named so they authorized me to make arrangements for this meeting. If we find that you are interested in this proposition they may get interested. We are not short of water this year and we have a supply of water at the present time that is adequate for all our needs. If the proposition could be presented to the city of Portsmouth for a supply of good pure water, adequate for the city's needs for years to come, I think that I would be interested in behalf of Portsmouth." Mayor Badger then called on Mayor Foss for remarks.

Mayor Foss said in part: "I don't know as I am familiar enough with the matter as I have only been mayor of the city for a few months. Dover has enough water for its present needs but I think that it may have to have an additional supply in the future. Our water is of good quality. The water commissioners are to submit a proposition to the council. The water commissioners are of the opinion that the Merrymeeting pond price is more than it will cost them to get water from another source."

Mayor Badger then called on Water Commissioner Owen for remarks. He said: "I think that Mayor Foss has pretty thoroughly gone over the facts in relation to Dover. The price that the water supply company submitted to the city of Dover was $16,000 for the amount of water that we would need which now costs us $6500."

Mayor Badger stated that the supply company gave Portsmouth a price of $25,000 for a supply of 1 1-2 million gallons a day and 4 cents per thousand gallons for all used over that amount.

Ex-Mayor John Pender of Portsmouth was the next speaker. He said in part: "I know but little of the plans of the company that wants to sell water. The water supply company desire the city of Portsmouth to pay them $25,000 a year for 1 1-2 million gallons a day and 4 cents per 1000 gallons for all water used in excess of the 1 1-2 million gallons, which would cost $40,000 a year to deliver water to the outskirts of the city of Portsmouth, if the city accepts the proposition of the water supply company. I have heard it said that it will cost one million dollars to put in the plant that the New Hampshire Supply Co. plans. I am in favor of Portsmouth appointing a committee of three good men and each other town and city that was interested in the proposition appointing a committee of three men to join with the committee from Portsmouth, as I believe a committee of this kind could work out the proposition to good advantage to all interested. I believe it is the duty of each town and city to get together and work out the matter most thoroughly. Of course, you all know what promoters are and you should go slow with them and I think that we should go slow in this matter."

Mayor Badger then said: "Mr. Pender has expressed my sentiments in the case and I agree with him fully. I believe that Dover, Somersworth and Portsmouth should get together, choose a committee and have this matter fully and properly investigated before doing anything to be sorry for in the future."

Mayor Preston of Rochester was the next speaker. He said in part: "I am not familiar with the proposition. Rochester has a good supply of water supplied by gravity which is sufficient for the needs of the present time."

Mayor Badger asked if Somersworth was represented at the meeting, but no one responded. Mayor Foss said that Mayor Labonte of Somersworth had been away from that city and he had doubts about his having as yet returned.

Representative Demeritt of Durham was the next speaker. He said in part: "It would seem out of place for me to make any extended remarks, coming from the small town of Durham. Our town is practically without a water supply. At the town meeting a year ago it was voted that the town try and get some assistance from the state in relation to getting a water supply for the town. Our selectmen met in conference with the college trustees. A special committee was chosen to go before the legislature in relation to the matter. The legislature gave the New Hampshire Water Supply Co. the right to take water from Merrymeeting Pond and to distribute it in Southeastern New Hampshire. The supply of water in Southeastern New Hampshire is inadequate to supply 50,000 people. Dover has spent much money for water and has not got also in want of a better supply of water. Somersworth takes its water from the river and the testimony before the committee was to the effect that there was typhoid in the water."

Water Commissioner Andrew Killoren said that the water board discussed the proposition of the water supply company one night, and they were not in favor of the proposition at the price that had been made to them. He said the city's supply of water at the present time is sufficient. Mr. Killoren spoke of the Reyner brook proposition for Dover and said that if Portsmouth had it their supply would be adequate.

Ex-Mayor Foster was the next speaker and he said in part: "Dover consumes about 600,000 gallons of water a day which is about one third of the amount that is used in Portsmouth. I think that I was about the first person to suggest going to Merrymeeting Pond for a supply of water for this city, and I made the suggestion in my inaugural address. The people have acquired the right to Islington river. The experts that have been engaged here have agreed that Reyner brook is sufficient to supply the needs of the city. The city at the present time is not in a position to spend a great amount of money as we have a large water debt, something more than $250,000. I think that Supt. Perry can explain the water situation."

Supt. Perry was the next speaker and he said in part: "It occurred to me a great many years ago that it would be a great scheme to go to Merrymeeting Pond and get water for this city and it had been a surprise to me that this proposition had not been put into effect before. It is impossible, however, for the city to pay the price that is wanted by the water supply company to furnish water for this city. It now costs the city $29.50 per million gallons of water delivered in our pipes while under the proposition offered it would cost $57.40 to deliver the water in the pipes. Our consumption of water today is 550,000 gallons per day. If what Mr. Pender said is true about Portsmouth's using two and a half million gallons of water a day you must be pouring it into the Piscataqua river. We want to use 750,000 gallons of water a day and we must get the extra supply that we need. I think that they are asking too much money for the water from Merrymeeting Pond."

Councilman Bennett of Portsmouth said: "I think that the price of the water company has been set too high. I think that if the meter system was put in effect in Portsmouth we would have water enough. I also think that the water supply company should give us a rate near our present cost if they expect us to buy water from them. I think we should have a larger supply at a lower cost."

Ex-Mayor White was the next speaker. "I have not as yet been in favor of the New Hampshire Water Supply Company's proposition. I think that Dover is pretty well supplied with water at the present time. I think that it would be very difficult to purchase this water from the New Hampshire Water Supply Company. I think that perhaps it would be well for the different municipalities of Southeastern New Hampshire to get together and investigate the matter."

Councilman Pinkham of Portsmouth spoke next in part as follows: "I have been deeply interested in the remarks of Ex-Mayor White. I believe as he does, that this matter should be most thoroughly debated before any action is taken. I don't believe that we require anything of this kind at this time. We want all our women, children and men to have all the water that they want to use, but we want to get down to a business proposition in this matter. That is what Mayor Badger is trying to do. He wants to determine what a reasonable price would be for the city to pay for the water."

RAILROAD NOTES

President Willard of the Baltimore & Ohio says: "Business in the Baltimore & Ohio's territory is holding up well. I do not think Baltimore & Ohio will spend much on improvements this year as last, but they will depend on the condition of the money market."

The committee on railway mail pay representing 248 roads has decided that railroads will carry parcel post mail up to the new 20 pound limit, in order to avoid inconvenience to the public, but declare service is exacted by the government without compensation for compensation.

The arbitrators who are to decide the question of wages and conditions for Boston Elevated employees will begin sessions at 10 o'clock Monday, next. A west bound freight this morning yanked fifty cars up over the grade in the Portsmouth yard, which plainly shows the difference in the Boston & Maine motive power of ten years ago when a yard switcher would be required to push a freight up the hill with 30 or more loaded cars.

The Boston and Maine road will run another excursion to the Isles of Shoals on Sunday, August 24.

LODGE CHARGES THE PRESIDENT WITH MAKING MEXICO A PARTY MATTER

Claims That Republicans Are Not Taken Into Confidence--Demand for Better Protection of American Citizens.

Washington, Aug. 15.—Strong intimation by Senator Lodge that the administration is striving to make the settlement of the Mexican situation a strictly party matter, today started an acrimonious debate, which occupied an hour.

Bitter denial of the imputation was voiced by Senator Bacon, chairman of the Committee on Foreign Relations, but Senator Lodge was sustained in his position by several of his associates on the Republican side of the chamber.

Despite denials by and for the administration, opinion is general that the administration is not taking Senator Lodge and other Republican members of the Foreign Relations Committee into its confidence and Senator Lodge's remarks were only an expression of this widespread belief.

Interesting revelations on Mexican affairs are expected very soon from Senator William Alden Smith, a Republican member of the Foreign Relations Committee. Senator Lodge today introduced a resolution calling upon President Wilson to inform the Senate whether William Bayard Hale is in Mexico City as the agent of any executive department of the Government; if so, by what authority he was appointed, and what compensation he has been given.

The White House explanation of Hale's presence in Mexico has been that he was there as a personal friend of President Wilson forwarding information.

Threatens Some Revelations.
Senator Penrose declared that he had no desire to further complicate a delicate situation or to indulge in illegitimacy. He referred, however, to dispatches from Mexico telling of the serious plight of Shirley C. Hale, son-in-law of Hale, Gov. Reynolds of Pennsylvania, who, with his wife and little daughter, are believed to be in danger from revolutionaries near the city of Chihuahua.

The Senator declared that unless the mission of John Lind developed a marked change in conditions in Mexico, he would address the Senate next week, laying before it certain information he did not disclose today.

"Things are getting pretty close to home," declared Senator Penrose, "and are becoming serious when American citizens are molested and their lives and property endangered. Personally, I am willing to wait a few days to see if the mysterious mission of Mr. Lind produces any tangible result.

"In the event that it does not early next week I expect to address the Senate on conditions in Mexico, and will offer a resolution which I hope will go some way toward asserting the dignity of the United States and its firm intention to protect the lives and property of Americans in Mexico."

Bacon Declines to Answer

Mr. Penrose asked Chairman Bacon of the Foreign Relations Committee if he would reveal the nature of Hale's mission.

"I decline to answer," replied Senator Bacon.

"Declining to answer will not constitute to be satisfactory to the Senate or to the people of the country," replied Senator Penrose.

Hale, Mr. Penrose declared, had been active in Mexico City, "conveying the impression that he is the representative of President Wilson," and had been in conference with Mr. Lind since the latter's arrival.

Senator Penrose added he had known Mr. Hale several years, and that he left Ardmore, Penn., about 12 years ago under circumstances which he need not "more than mention."

The Senator Dr. Hale's connections are covered the better for the unfortunate Americans now in Mexico, he concluded. The resolution calling for information went over until tomorrow.

Senator Lodge charged that the Democrats were trying to treat the Mexican question as a party affair. His statement, made in bitter terms, followed a declaration by Senator Bacon that "force meant war."

Everything is being done that can be done, Senator Bacon declared, short of using actual force, and force means war and war is not a thing to be rushed into hurriedly and rashly, not to be encouraged by intemperate speech at this time.

Outburst From Lodge.

Attempts by Democratic leaders to stop the Mexican discussion and turn the Senate back to the tariff bill brought an outburst from Senator Lodge.

"I want to support the President in every possible way on this Mexican matter," he cried, addressing the Democrats. "He is not your President alone; he is the President of the American people, as much mine as yours."

But I want no partisanship in the handling of this serious situation. You can't have partisanship on party lines, and that is what you are trying to do.

"You can do nothing worse than to exercise the power of your majority on this Mexican question. This question cannot be disposed of that way. It cannot be dismissed with a smile and a sneer."

Another resolution by Mr. Penrose calling for reports as to happening at Durango since Jan. 1; one by Senator Penrose, calling for information as to measures to protect Americans in Mexico and one by Senator Brandegee, calling for a joint investigation by the House and Senate Naval Committees, to determine what increase in the navy was being made and what Naval program was under consideration, were introduced.

In a denunciation of the Senate should not pass or consider the resolutions until the Foreign Relations Committee had an opportunity to take them up, Senator Bacon urged that all possible support be given the President.

Americans Being Murdered.
"While the Senate is deliberating in its committee," interrupted Senator Penrose, "Americans are daily being murdered in Mexico. There is a prominent American citizen in danger of being shot. I have information that more than 100 Americans have been killed, and that their names are on the list in the Department of State."

"The President of the United States is known by this Senate," returned Senator Bacon, "to be in good faith, and to the best of his ability, trying to deal with the situation through methods that will save this country from the great disaster of a war. I believe the American people recognize that and are upholding him in his efforts."

Senator Penrose retorted that he believed the administration was "engaged in good faith in a patriotic effort to solve the problem," but that he believed it was time to take some "police measures" to prevent further "murder of innocent and outraged upon common."

Objecting to the resolutions over for another day without reference to committee.

FOR A UNIFORM LAW.

Every State in the Union Will Be Represented at Session Held at Montreal.

For several years there has been a persistent demand for automobile associations, clubs and private owners for a uniform state law regulating motor vehicles. The absurdity of the contradictory regulations in neighboring states on speed limitations and other matters of automobile operation have been generally recognized and reciprocal relations along these lines for automobile users have been established by many states.

The recent announcement that the commissioners appointed in New York state to consider the question of uniformity in state motor laws are planning to hold conferences with interest as it comes on the eve of the annual meeting of the commissioners on uniform state laws to be held in Montreal beginning August 20. Every state in the Union is represented by three or more commissioners appointed by the Governors of the various states and the subject of uniform automobile legislation will be one of the topics under discussion.

Charles T. Terry, president of the Uniform Law Commission, has been working actively for years towards securing greater uniformity in automobile matters. He drafted as chairman of the American Automobile Association's legislative committee the Federal Automobile Bill which was introduced into Congress a few years ago, the leading motorist now feel that the best means to bring uniformity is through individual state action.

Before New York commissioners to discuss automobile uniformity have been appointed in New Jersey and Maryland. In Massachusetts the highway commissioners have been empowered to act as representatives from that state and it is expected that an early date commissioners will be named by the governors of Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, and Rhode Island.

The kidney secretions were too frequent in passing and at night I was obliged to arise several times. # COURTS MUST SETTLE WHO IS GOVERNOR OF NEW YORK

Gov. Sulzer Refuses to Surrender to Lt. Gov. Glynn and Still Holds the Fort.

Albany, N. Y., Aug. 15.—The beginning of the end of the dual administration in New York appeared to be in sight this afternoon.

Confronted by William Sulzer, the impeached Governor, arranged a conference for this afternoon with counsel for Martin H. Glynn, Lieutenant Governor, who claims to be Acting Governor because of Sulzer's impeachment, to decide, if possible, a method by which the courts may give at least temporary title to the Governorship to one or other of the claimants.

An extraordinary session of the proper tribunal may be called at once to settle the dispute.

Under the law the case could be taken at once to the highest tribunal in the state—the Court of Appeals.

The suggestion that the controversy be submitted to the courts was contained in a letter addressed to Glynn by Sulzer. This letter was in reply to a letter sent Sulzer by Glynn, formally demanding that Sulzer surrender to him the privy seal of the state, the Executive Chamber and offices and all documents in his possession relating to the Executive Department.

In his reply, Sulzer declined to recognize Glynn as acting Governor, refused point blank to surrender anything, announced his intention to exercise the functions of the Executive and made the suggestion to place the matter before the courts for the purpose of preventing any unseemly struggle.

Greeted Messenger Pleasantly

Frank A. Tierney, secretary of Mr. Glynn, left the Lieutenant Governor's office at 12.30 p. m. for the Executive Chamber to serve Mr. Sulzer with Mr. Glynn's letter. William Lamborn of the executive staff met the secretary at the door and immediately went into the Executive's inner office to inform him of Mr. Tierney's mission.

Lamborn soon reappeared and said that the Governor would see the secretary and Mr. Tierney was ordered into the presence of the impeached Executive.

Valentine H. Taylor, the Governor's private counsel, entered the office shortly afterward.

A messenger left the Governor's private office hurriedly and returned shortly thereafter, accompanied by Highway Commissioner John N. Christie. Mr. Christie left a few minutes later by a side door. Mr. Tierney remained in the Governor's private office for about 40 minutes.

Letter Addressed "Hon. William Sulzer."

When he entered the office he was greeted familiarly by Gov. Sulzer.

"I have come to present a letter from Mr. Glynn," Tierney explained.

"All right," responded Mr. Sulzer.

Island, Connecticut, Pennsylvania and Delaware.

Many of the commissioners who are members of the National State Uniform Law body have made a careful study of automobile legislation and come interesting reports on a subject which is of such vital interest will be presented to the conference during its session at Montreal.

In addition to discussing the automobile legal question, the state commissioners at Montreal will also discuss methods of securing greater uniformity in laws affecting pure foods, workmen's compensation, marriage and divorce, child labor, medical practice, corporation and business partnerships.

WOMEN AS SPIES IN TIME OF WAR

Work of Great Danger But Often Well Paid for by Authorities

Not long ago an engineer in the English army was sentenced to four years imprisonment for having betrayed naval secrets. Accidentally meeting a woman whom he had known casually years before, he was led to speak of his life in the service, and all unwittingly gave her a clue to certain naval plans. These she is supposed to have sold to a foreign government.

Many an adventuress lives on the sale of state secrets, a condition of affairs that many people believe not to exist save in the imagination of novelists. The importance of having women in the service called secret, has been demonstrated time and again in the last few years.

Four years ago a case was recorded in Shoburn where headquarters were opened ostensibly for the study of languages. Under this pretext people came and went more or less constantly without attracting much attention. Meanwhile a young German lady made periodical visits to Shoburn where she formed the acquaintance of a young naval officer.

taking the proffered document and turning it over to his counsel, Dr. Cady Herlick.

Mr. Glynn's letter is addressed to "Hon. William Sulzer, Albany, N. Y." It is signed by Mr. Glynn as "Acting Governor" and reads as follows:

"In the performance of the duty which has devolved upon me by Article 4, Section 5, of the Constitution I officially demand that you deliver all records and documents in said chamber or offices or elsewhere, in your charge, possession or custody, relating to or in any wise connected with or pertaining to the Executive Department. The bearer hereof is authorized to receive your answer to this communication. Respectfully,

"Martin H. Glynn,
"Acting Governor."

Gov. Sulzer's Written Reply.

The Governor gave his written reply to Mr. Tierney, remarking: "I am glad to see you anyway, Frank."

Gov. Sulzer's letter, addressed to "Hon. Martin H. Glynn, Lieutenant Governor," reads as follows:

"Sir—Yours of Aug. 15 demanding that I deliver and surrender to you, as Acting Governor the use, possession and occupancy of the Executive Chamber and offices, and that I likewise deliver and surrender to you the executive privy seal of the state of New York; and also all books, papers, records and documents in said chamber or offices, or elsewhere in my charge or custody, relating to or in any way connected with or pertaining to the Executive Department, received.

"In response thereto, I decline to deignize you as Acting Governor of the state and decline to deliver to you the use, possession and occupancy of the Executive Chamber and offices, or in any way to comply with the demands and requests in your letter.

"I shall continue to exercise and discharge the constitutional duties of the Governor of the State of New York; and, among other reasons, because I am advised that the Assembly at the extraordinary session possessed and possesses no power or authority to prefer articles of impeachment; and, secondly, because the Lieutenant Governor of the state is not authorized to act as Governor in case of impeachment of the Governor unless such impeachment is sustained.

"For the purpose of preventing any unseemly struggle, I suggest that counsel for the Lieutenant Governor and for myself, agree on a method of submitting the question to the courts for decision; and for that purpose, that extraordinary sessions of the courts be forthwith called, in order that a speedy determination may be had. Respectfully,

"William Sulzer, Governor."

He had not been more than a week or two in her company when he began to suspect her interest in his department. In due order she admitted that she wished to obtain a quantity of plans. He immediately acquiesced his superior with the state of affairs and the young lady fled in haste to Germany.

Lord Wolsey says in his Soldier's Pocketbook that spies are liberally paid when the information they give is of exceptional value. During the Anglo-Bosnian war the English employed many women spies. Large numbers were distributed throughout the hospitals, where they exercised their arts of fascination upon the wounded prisoners with telling effect as to securing important data and sources of supply.

Brief and mysterious was the fate of a young Russian woman of good family who left St. Petersburg during the Japanese-Russian war. She undertook to get naval secrets from a young Japanese official in Manchuria. Forgetting loyalty and patriotism this young man fell into the trap and told her of plans and dates with regard to the movement of the Japanese artillery. But he was suspected by a companion who kept steadily watch on him, and the result was that both the young woman and man who had become infatuated with her quickly disappeared. The family of the young woman expended vast sums of money to ascertain her fate but without any result whatever.

quickly disappeared. The family of the young woman expended vast sums of money to ascertain her fate but without any result whatever.

Not long ago in Toulouse, a young girl named Juana Renee, alias Bourg got herself into serious trouble for the crime of inducing certain naval officers to reveal secrets of the French submarine service. These secrets she sold for large sums, not to one, but to several European governments. She was only 21 years of age and her sudden accession of prosperity caused attention to be centered upon her. A young mechanic in the army was finally induced to accuse her and produce all necessary proofs. Some mysterious social influences protected her however, and she was not punished.

THIRTY MINUTES WON LIVELY OCEAN RACE

New York, Aug. 15.—A lively ocean race between the French liner France and the Cunard liner Mauretania came to an end today with the latter 30 minutes ahead in passing Fire Island Lightship, a close finish for a 3000-mile contest. The Mauretania passed the lightship at 7.50 this morning with the France hustling by at 8.10 a. m.

The steamships were in sight of each other for a long distance, and Capt. Poncet of the France did his best to beat out the rival ship, but slowly the Mauretania crept up and finally passed the France yesterday. Gradually forging ahead at 8 last night the Cunard liner was 125 miles east of Sandy Hook, while the French boat was a scant five miles behind her.

The France left Havre late Saturday. The Mauretania starting from Liverpool, stopped at Queenstown for mail and left there on a 2800-mile journey Sunday morning, 12 hours behind the other ship, with 200 miles less to travel.
